The 'Clyde Catchment Conference: Living and Working with the River' took place on the 13 December 2002 in Glasgow city centre. Delegates from a wide range of disciplines heard addresses from a number of experienced individuals. The subsequent output from the workshops held in the afternoon are reported in Issue 2 of Clyde Breakers - the Forum's Newsletter. The opening address by Countess Glasgow is also available to download here (125Kb).

Session 1

- Prof. George Fleming (EnviroCentre). Learning to live with rivers (234Kb).
- Steven McGarva (Scottish Enterprise). Clyde Rebuilt, An Economic and Social Strategy (367Kb).

Session 2

- Callum Sinclair (SEPA). Water Framework Directive. Contact Callum direct at SEPA for copy of talk.
- Ian Macnab (Glasgow City Council). Forward thinking in Catchment management (9.2Mb total)
    - Part 1: Slides 1-5 (3Mb)
    - Part 2: Slides 6-10 (2.8Mb)
    - Part 3: Slides 11-21 (2.2Mb)
    - Part 4: Slides 22-30 (2.1Mb)
    - Part 5: Slides 31-39 (386Kb)

Session 3

- Prof Alan Ervine (Glasgow University). Predicting water levels in the Clyde (2.3Mb)
- Prof. David Crichton (Insurance Industry). The cost of keeping dry (114Kb).
